

The primary aim of this highly experimental work is to bridge the gulf between right and left brain functions. To this end we will perform powerful Enochian Calls and rites to achieve specific states of being referred to as Aires or Aethyrs, each of which is associated with certain musicks which we perpose to transmit or "channel". The introductory piece The Aire of One's Equilibrium, and calls for many silvery-sounding cymbals, bells and similar percussion. Mystic Dance/Music of the Spheres, in addition to dancers, involves seven simultaneous chants. The Outermost Abyss should be a mind-numbing jazz improvization, and the concluding Alchemical Wedding, unearthly strings and voices under the half moon.

We are aware of two principal schools of Enochian Magic. The "orthodoxy" which claims direct descent from the Hermetic Order of the Golden Dawn (wrongly called terrestrial and obsolete) advocates gradual development based on carefully visiting the 30 Aethers one by one in succession, whereas the "Black" workers, when denied access to the Golden Dawn by virtue of their race, created their own advanced approach, almost unbelievably dangerous by G.D. stasndards, involving Pseudo-catholic NeoGnostic meanderings all over the Tree of Life, and particularly a voltageristic* technique which leaps about utilizing occult paths and tunnels undreamed of by more conservative practitioners. This composition utilizes elements of both.

There are those who perceive this work as steps toward a True Higher Spirituality, and others who claim it is but a cloak for the filthiest of sorceries. And we know Not, and could care less.

*volt, also volte...a sudden movement made to avoid a thrust in fencing. (Fr. volte- O Ital. volta-turn-voltare, to turn, leap) see vault. American Heritage Dictionary.

Bestow-1. to present as a gift or honor, confer. 2. to apply; use. 3. Archaic. To store or house. American Heritage Dictionary.

Both the theme and infrastructure of the entire working are established here, for the Alchemical Marriage began with a Weighing. Many cymbals* are to be played in an airy, silvery manner, to create a "throat" (voice) for the Angels of Tah-en "the aether of one's equilibrium". The intent is mental manifestation through harmonic interference. "Guideposts" or indicators of success include insights into the relationship of "consciousness" and "reality", and integration of such realizations with respect to duality, equilibrium and Karma. The rite is closed with silence and three rings of a bell or gong.

TAN -HAZARDS

Within this aether is the foundation of ethics. A false sense of moral superiority is the principle hazard. The all-to-prevalent formula "stroke my ego=good, positive; undermine my ego=bad, negative" is as disastrous as the delusion that one's own best interest or Will can somehow be fulfilled at the expense of another. Remember the blood of the Saints condemned for their "crimes", and that the folks who are bringing you fusion pumped gamma lasers in space are "positive"* they are "good" people. A spirit of humble Understanding and reflection on the Wisdom teaching "Let whoever is perfect cast the first stone" are appropriate safeguards.

*If you throw this word around please look it up in any dictionary and decide if it's what you really mean!

OXO-HAZARDS

The serious, aeon-bound ego can perceive this playful aire only as a terrible blasphemy. For the exempt adept howver, the risk is of joyful addiction to the bliss of ananda-libido*. Spppression of unforfilled desires is useless. One rather accepts the joyful benevolence of Our Lady's flowery emanations as both a foretaste to, and a means of, egress to "Good things to Come". It is here and through her that the work of dispersion is undone "both in its entirety and in every part therof."

*the highest bliss that can be known in this world. There are, however, higher raptures beyond knowing, in other worlds.

Herein is the quintescence of those venoms lethal to mundane consciousness but so vital to supernal awareness. And nothing human may pass the Guardian thereof. There os but one remedy for "freak out" but fortunately that is completely effective. "shut yer traps!" Silence.
