

Lesser Ritual of Inverse Heptagram

(I wrote this ritual to replace the L.R. of the Pentagram. The energies invoked with that ritual do not agree with me, and after performing it, my spirit produced a reaction I can only describe as vomiting. It is a singularly unpleasant experience. This ritual is much more comfortable and if performed correctly produces a "rush" of a much different kind than that other one.) note traces of Star Ruby, as well.

* Legs apart in a inverted "V"
Face North*, hands clenched together over 'third eye'

1. Open hands into triangle, vibrate "UN"
2. Clench hands over heart, v. "VAT"
3. Form inverse triangle over genitals, v. "EN"
4. Raise hands over head in a circular fashion until they meet, bring down to heart, palms together, fingers pointed upward, elbows perpendicular to body and v. "BAIU"

("Open is the Way of Souls") The image is that of an ankh with the vertical line split in a Typhonic fork (denying the unity of Kether, etc.)

Advance to West imagine Inverse Heptagram in fire, thrust ~~to~~ it forward w/ Sign of Enterer, return hands in Sign of Silence, vibrating "BABALON" (or Hadit, if you choose)

" " East: S of E, v. "THERION", S of S (or Nuit, if you choose)
