

Cast circle. Banish, etc.

Let the magician be naked at the altar, which bears the weapons and robe. Let him raise his hands to the sky and repeat the Oath. Do what thou wilt! My Will is made one in this operation of holy magick, the convocation of the Elements. I dedicate the energies of my being to this operation in the holy names ADONAI HA*ARETZ.

Let the adept then raise the wand to the sky and conjure the Lord and Lady:

" Here I invoke the Union Divine, the two which spring from the Naught and give birth to the two-in-one who is three, whirling power, lovers divine bestow your oneness upon me, that I may be a beacon of light.

All Father, king of the Firmament bestow upon me thy lordly wisdom, Lord of the Law, give me your loving grace, Child of the Sun, fill me with your joyous beauty, Scribe of the Word, grant me the power of holy magick.

(with wand) saying

"As the crown, so the kingdom

"aether"

Replace wand and take up the dagger, going to the Eastern Quarter where he lights the candle and draws ~~★~~ in the air above it, and speaks air incantation. Return to the altar and get wand, proceed to the south light candle, draw and speak South fire incant, etc. for the other two.

Let the adept return to the altar from the North, and continue to face the north.

-Invocation of the earth woman-

Take up the pantacle in the left hand and the wand in the right. Beginning in the North, display the pentacle to the quarters, striking it with the wand at each. Replace it on the altar. Kneel and strike the earth 3 times with the wand. Place Wand on ground pointing n-s, hands palms down on either side. When the names of the goddess are chanted, take up the wand and knock upon the earth 3 times afterwards replacing the wand as before.

(with palms flat against the earth, awaiti the coming of the Goddess. When you feel her presence, then rise and assume ~~A~~ position facing North saying:

" Spirits of earth, worship thy queen.

Spirits of air, etc..water...fire.. "

" Children of the Goddess, adore your mother! "

(at this time adept meditates on the earth woman and the four, seeking their essence. When complete take up robe put on, saying " I am robed in splendour and mantled in glory. My hands are as tools, to call and cast out. I wear the crown at my head and bare my heart as lamen. Admit me, Holy ones, through the gate of the Serpent path that I msy search the kingdom for the crown. Guide me and give me light that I may see my way clearly.

Give to me, o my mother, the knowledge of thy workings, give me o thou holy beasts entrance to thy worlds. May the Secrets of Earth be open to me."

(Time to work any spells in keeping with the earth force.)

(You can now either dismiss or continue)

-on rising from malkuth to yesod-

May there be a central altar for Luna, with white altar cloth, chalice, mirror, unlit violet candles two, seal of luna, tarot two, salt. At North point is a Terran Altar with pentacle within a cross of the elements.

carry salt to n altar, salute quarters with wand and give call to the elemental kings.

* Air- o Swift Paralda who rules the Winds of the world, be blessed under heaven and upon earth. Lend now thy aid open wide thy gate, in the names Shaddai el-Chai and Chassan, open the Gate to Arie's Court."

△- Bright Djinn, fire, Tetragrammaton
Tsabaoth, Aral, Seraphs

▽- Sweet Nichsa, saters, Elohim Tsabaoth,
Taliahad, Tharsils

▽- Strong Ghob, Adonai-ha-aretz, phorlach, Kerubs

Let him give 10 knocks upon the earth with the Wand and contemplate the earth emblem. Then conjure the earth woman as Aradia.

"Aradia! My Aradia! Thou who art daughter to her who is most mighty of Spirits, who of old reigned in Summerland when driven from earth, who by his sister did thy sire become. Aradia! My Aradia! I implore thee by the love she bears to thee!

I pray thee grant the Grace which I ask. Oh Aradia!
Come unto this circle neath the Moon and open to me the Gates of the Moon that I may pass unto the realm of thy mother and thy father."

(Aradia shall answer thus: Welcome thou art in the Starry Realm if thou knowest the words and names of she who guards the path.)

Answer: "Zazel is her servent who opens unto Agiel. In her realm is the standing stone and the Ancient Sea. Her mate is the Reaper, Harvesting time who cuts the cofd.
Astarte-of-the-sea is she called, and Black Isis."

Aradia opens the path and adept enters. Path should be tread in a spiral, meditatevely, four times round, and one revolution at the Altar. Focus on Binah symbolism.
After revolution at ☽ , focus on Lunar emblem and give nine knells. Assume proper positions and incant:

"In the Mist-Meadow dances the Moon-Woman. Purple and Silver are the robes of her veiling. In the Moon-boat the Goddess stands. Sure is her hand on the tiller in the Water-maze. Sure is she in her power, lithe, missing no step in her dance. Change is in her, and the stability of adaption. Strong is her Womb in the bringing forth of form, sweet her face in the Ecstasy. Hail to the Moon-Woman, her essence is hidden but her reflection is clear.
May her power and grace be upon me here. By thy name and by thy Consort, greetings unto thee."

"In the Star-Forest the Horned God runs, his hooves flashing like lightning. Mighty in the Moon-Forest is the King of Summerland. Potent his power to make and to unmake. Brother-lover of Great Diana, she awakens his Magick and brings his work to bear. Hail to the Horned One, stout-staved Beast Lord. In the hunt his arrow is true, yet the slain beast lives in him. He courses with the stag and springs forth in Grain and Corn. Hail to thee, Moon-bull, may thy swiftness and potency be upon me here. By thy name and by thy consort, greetings unto thee."

(If wished, let the Eucharistic Great Rite be performed. Then let the contents of the Chalice be consumed, vibrating the name SHADDAI EL CHAI Meditate upon the rite and the Lunar power. Close, dismiss and thank those who have been called.)

(On the moon gate- the elements are saluted as the kings (assiatie) of the powers. These are commanded to open the gate to the next level (yetziratic) of elemental reality. At each quarter feel the raise in vibration(understanding). From physical to emotional. Vibrate names intensely. If the call to the Earth-woman has been successfully performed, the invocation of Aradia will be smooth. Aradia is not the god of the path. Binah is. The relationship between the Supernal Mother and the Bride is to be meditated upon. As the Spiral proceeds, let the XXI Trump be meditated upon. It may be valuable to silently salute each quarter as you pass, but all is inward and outward silence.

Upon approaching the central altar, a dawning glow as of the moon may be perceived. When the twin powers are felt in their strength, then the Lunar Current has manifested. This may take several repetitions of the rite. Spirits may be tested by the ~~A~~ and by applying the Law of Thelema.

I- I know you don't have the weapons, but you have enough things to be able to wing it adequately. Heavily pagan. But extremely effective. The earth woman manifests as a strong feeling of (of course) earth, green energy. During the part for whatever you want to do after evoking-invoking her, I charged the chalice of wine with the energies of the four quarters and the Lady.

On invoking-evoking Aradia- Blue energie filling the room and The full moon shining down from the central altar- very strong. Can't miss it. On the circumambulation, I also used the tambourine, gently to produce ringing very quiet and water-like, concentrating on the fact that you can almost see that full moon above you. I concentrated on astral control, and dedicated the second chalice's contents to that.

Results: Total success!!!! I spent the night exploring astrally. Don't think I could have stayed in my body if I had wanted.to.
