"There is no god but man"
- Liber Oz, A. Crowley

This simple yet revolutionary statement is often repeated but rarely analyzed. I wish to explain what this means to me in terms of the evolution of humanity and our direct responsibility for this evolution here and NOW, through every facet of our lives.

"There is no god but man" does not necessarily mean that there is no god, as many people seem to think, far from it, in truth it points to the ACTUALITY of god in the form of Humanity, that is we form in our unified consciousness or 'collective group mind' what we have been programmed to label GOD. We have always created our gods and goddesses in our own image and probably always will. The blonde blue-eyed Norse created blonde and blue-eyed gods, and on and on. These various gods, be they called Nuit, Thor, Athena, Baron Samedi, Pan or Marx are, as Carl Jung has pointed out, Archetypes. These Archetypes are personified forces or FOCI within the Collective Subconscious Mind for the process of individualization. This process is the emerging of the personal and inately unique Foci from the subconscious mind that most religions identify as the spiritual path. Those gods or archetypes that are not objectivised as human, such as Anubis the dog-headed or the Norse Fenris wolf are still uniquely human projections because they emerge from even deeper strata in our genetic program, for we contain every evolutionary step within and these gods derive their power from primal ancestral stavisms.

Each major evolutionary shift or change of Aeons is signaled by a radical shift in primary archetypes. The seon or archetype of the Great Mother manifest in matriarchy, goddess worship and a deep understanding of cycles and Earth Magick necessarily gave way to the patriarchal, warlike, heirarchical unfolding of the Great Father archetype or seon. The Father then became the primary focus of energy or information within the group unconscious mind. We have now entered a new Aeon, as Im sure is obvious to all of you. It becomes more obvious every day, all one has to do is pick up a paper or punch up a program on the old home computer, which is how I wrote this by the way. The Mother and the Father have given way to a new archetypal foci, the Son Archetype, the child of our Primordial Parents. Many now postulate that the future Aeon will see the rise of the Daughter as the primary archetype. I use the word 'future' as Im using all these theologically slippery words here, with a spoonful of salt and the knowledge that reality is what you will it to be.

So what? Im sure Ive mentioned nothing new here, and I havent even recapitulated the progression of Aeons very articulately, yet let me take this further. If we can emotionally step back from this somewhat traumatic process of evolution a several patterns emerge. A godform or archetype becomes prominent in our collective unconscious and emerges effectively in religion, politics, traditions, taboos etc then it is literally sigilized or eaten by the species mind as another godform surplante it both in the species mind in in the physical world. The process repeats, the species learns, the process repeats etc. At this point in pragmatic time we have eaten our collective parents and are now in the process of giving collective birth to something new, the Son of the Mother and Father within us all.

Why? ~~Lets cut all the mystical bullshit, all consideration of karma, dharmas etc just for a little bit and look plainly and pragmatically at this painful, bloody and sometimes merciless process of evolution that uses war, plague and genocide among other forces in shaping our evolution. Who? What is the goal of the evolution of the Human race? If we can postulate that we are becoming GOD-DESS, slowly but surely as a race, WHY? Yes, I know, because is damned for a dog but please humor me.~~ Lets Look

My postulate, which is neither new nor original, is that the Goal is the AWAKENING OF THE UNIFIED CONSCIOUSNESS OF THE HUMAN RACE IN HARMONY WITH OUR PLANET. The birth to consciousness of the World soul if you will. There exist images in our mythos that personify this Awake World soul, the Hindus call it Kalki, the Buddhists call it Maitreya, the Gnostics call it Mani or Abraxas. Soror Nema, a primary contact for Maat energy has envisioned the awakening of this World soul and calls it N'aton. I Yname it MATAS. By whatever label we place upon this fantastic Awareness there is no mistake, this being IS US, not an alien descending from Sirius, not a savior descending from heaven, there is no escape from ourselves, from what we have created and from what we will create. We are responsible. This World soul is, was and will be an Aware Consciousness that encompasses every one and everything that ever was or will be, quantum mechanics have proven that all exists Here and Now and the World soul will BE when we have all achieved full consciousness of the simultaneity of our existence and history as a species. It is sad but predictable that religions such as Christianity and Islam have apocalyptic revelations of this evolutionary leap as an apocalypse, from the point of view of their cults they are correct; religion as well as politics will cease to exist when a unified awareness occurs. The original meaning if the word RELIGION shows why, it comes from two words that translate as RE-LINK. When we have completed RELINKING and are whole, the word will no longer be necessary.

Several years ago I formulated most of these thoughts and theories, I then made an effort to directly contact this World soul since theoretically time and space do not form a barrier to this endeavor, all I needed to do was use Love and Will. I then had the following dreams.

In the first dream I entered a temple tended by very alien looking priests. I was searching for what I then refered to as N'aton and informed the priests of this. They silently indicated that I had come to the right place and ushered me into the inner sanctum. There, in the center, was a large bubble of a glass-like substance full of fluid that stood over ten feet tall. It was a giant artificial womb and floating inside was a large golden foetus glowing with a light and vitality that left me in awe. I knew that this was the World soul I'd been seeking and this was confirmed when it opened it's eyes and directly and silently communicated several things to me. First that it was indeed N'Aton, the collective consciousness of humanity. Second, that it was on the verge of waking and this was being symbolically presented to me in the form of a foetus because gestation was occurring NOW. The third and last thing was that it was relatively defenseless and humanity could still "abort" it if we chose the route of species suicide, blowing billions of years of evolution.

I would like to add that we still can.
The second dream occurred years later after I again purposely invoked this being for communication.

The dream began in total darkness. Suddenly a diffuse light began to slowly appear in front of me and then the sun began to rise in a brilliant display of red, yellow and orange. I was dazed and stunned by the beauty of it. Out of the sun appeared a being clothed in flame, so bright that I could barely look at it's human-like form. Silently, powerfully, it began to commune with me. It announced clearly that it was the World Soul, N'Aton etc though names were indicated as being only partial and thus essentially useless. I then identified itself by offering to show me what it was and the essence of it's creation. I experienced the birth of our world, of unicellular life, of various animals then of primates. Then I saw the awareness, the spark, that marked the emergence of humanity. I experienced the ages of mankind, the civilizations rising and falling, the diffuse yet similar cultures that grew and spread about the earth. I saw every phase of mankind's evolution, the wars, the pain, the joy, the art, and one thing was pointed out over and over and over again until I saw the pattern. Religion, re-linking, the essential spark that made us what we are drove us over and over to found cults, creeds, rites, and holy books. From the earliest cromagnon cave-bear cult to sophisticated religious philosophies still lying in our 'future', all formed the being of the World Soul. Every cult, every god, every urge towards the divine in art, literature, crusades, states, in short, EVERYTHING EVER ASSOCIATED WITH THE URGE TOWARDS GODHEAD IS/WAS AND WILL BE THE DIRECTLY PLANTED SEED OF THE WORLDSOUL IN ORDER TO BRING ABOUT IT'S OWN EXISTANCE. Every one of these seeds is/was/will be necessary in order for the World Soul to come to conscious birth. As I talk The World Soul is creating it's self through the artistic medium of Humanity. You might look upon our entire evolution as a piece of Art that takes Aeons to complete sculpting itself.

I know that this doesn't make linear sense, you should have seen me the morning after this dream trying to desperately to find the words to communicate it. Never have the physical restraints of flesh, pen and paper annoyed me more! Let me add a few explanations that will probably only scramble my intended communication some more!

First, the World Soul exists outside time and space. In our perceiver Reality the World Soul has yet to become fully conscious, yet in it's universe it always has been/will be/IS in existence. Yet it is also NOW self-generating within the group unconscious mind within which we perceive it individualizing AS OUR OWN PERSONAL SOUL, GENIUS OR HOLY GUARDIAN ANGEL. Second, though it does span time and space we can still abort it as I have mentioned. How? How even we alter something that is/was/will be eternal/ I don't know, I only know that we can AND ARE ON THE VERGE OF DOING SO. As we each individualize and birth our own SELVES, HOLY GUARDIAN ANGELS, SOULS or whatever you wish to call it, we thus create what Jung referred to as the SHADOW, commonly called the DEMON or the DARKSIDE. This is in line with the laws of energy and matter, action and reaction. So does the emergence of the Worldsoul engender it's own opposition, in fact, I recently realized that without this opposition, without the anti-evolutionary Black Brothers the birth of the Worldsoul can not occur! Third, YOU and I and the Humanity surrounding us ARE THE WORLD SOUL. I believe that you KNOW this to be true, it is a FACT that EVERY MAN AND EVERY WOMAN IS A STAR AND THAT THERE IS NO DIFFERENCE BETWEEN ANY ONE THING AND ANY OTHER THING. Paradox upon enigma upon paradox, I confuse myself!

So, the divine spark within all of us, communing collectively in the species subconscious mind as the world soul has seeded itself throughout what appears to be our history in preparation for it's emergence or birth from the species group-mind. Yet we must consciously WILL this, it is not enough for us to admire the process and sip lemonade, we must tend the Seeds, we must cherish and cultivate our innate godhood AND it is our duty to help others do the same to the best of our ability. This is not altruism, it is really a matter of self interest, if ALL of humanity does not awake, none of us will survive, it is very simple. Part of what is happening now in this Aeon is that the reins of evolution are being put directly in our hands. We have been led and tutored by Mother and Father, now we are on our own and the chariot can either be ridden along the genetic path or we can abrogate responsibility and let it run amok towards self destruction.

I have no answers. I cant predict the future nor would I if I could. I have no grand laws or advice but I can tell you some of the conclusions I have come to regarding this buisness which you may or may not find applicable to your own evolution?

1. Certain great teachers have pointed the way for birthing the Worldsoul and they have uttered their WORDS or LOGOS which were major Seeds of the Worldsoul. Yet "all prophets have a little" of this Gnosis but their words have been twisted by the shadow of what they were attempting to communicate. Still their Words have merit and still point the way. All IS ever as it was.
2. The Great Work is that of personal individualization, sometimes called Knowledge and Conversation of the Holy Guardian Spirit, finding ones ALLY etc. This birthing of the Inner SELF through intensive self evolution in fact mirrors what is happening with the World soul. This Alchemy is the Microcosm of what is Macrocosmically happening, the Birth of a Species Soul. When enough individuals have reached this awakened state then the 'hundredth monkey effect' will occur and th Worldsoul will awaken. As the Grateful Dead say, "The faster you go, the rounder you get."
3. The Gnosis or Spiritual Gnosis must be made available to all. It is also in a process of Synthesis as it has always been but now that information is flowing faster and farther than ever before, the speed with which this is occurring has dramatically increased and we must ride this ever swelling wave. One of the most important projects for all of us is the uniting of Eastern and Western Magicks, scholars are now finding connections between the Norse Runes and Sanskrit, The great Goddess Kali is in fact the same archetype as Nuit and Hecate. We can no longer afford the luxury of specialization and ethnocentrism, ALL the seeds must be gathered together for the birthing.

4. It is possible HERE and NOW for YOU to directly communicate with the Worldsoul if you have become aware of your inner SELF, many of you have done so, consciously or unconsciously. I strongly urge everyone to forge a bond with the Worldsoul. I believe that success will have been achieved when you receive your own personal name for the Worldsoul. Your Angel will lead you to this because it is itself a Seed of the Worldsoul. We are all scattered bits of the body of God...

5. I believe that the code we are following that has emerged over and over symbolically in our mythid is the DNA. Yet science has recently discovered that the actual DNA is merely a physical shell, the hardware if you will, that the more important RNA or software is using to implement it's self creation. It is interesting that the RNA is merely a signal, information in it's purest state, or as Hadit says in Liber Al; Nowhere Found but indeed the point within the circle.

6. Research and work with any of the concepts I have discussed engenders incredible opposition, as I'm sure you know. The World Ego, Demon or Archon created from our fear, pain, hunger, cruelty and attachments may yet drag us down. There are those who have ceased evolving and have us do likewise. They would rather all life die than to let go of their slavery, be it to power, money or any number of addictions. We are being forged into evolutionary warriors this Aeon and we should be mentally, magickally and physically prepared for anything.

7. I believe that WILL and LOVE working through ART are the keys of Transmutation and Evolution.

I apologise if my words upset or anger anyone, I honestly believe that everyone has a different universe and interprets everything in their own unique manner. I recoil with horror at the thought that anyone might percieve what I'm attempting to communicate as a sermon or as dogma! I realize that, as the trite phrase says, "It's all illusion", nothing Does matter and all IS ever as it was. Yet, paradoxically, these are the very reasons WHY we MUST awaken to our evolutionary potential, in order that we might CREATE that reality that unites us all in com-union. If nothing else, let me leave you with one very personal thought; The fate of Humanity is literally in your hands.

Thanks and Love and Will to you all.
